Delegate Code of Conduct, Liability, and Photo Consent Contracts

Code of Conduct

South Bay Model United Nations requires delegates to adhere to a Code of Conduct as a condition of participation in order to foster an environment true to the values of the conference. Violations will be handled by the Secretariat and may be grounds for expulsion from the conference or disqualification from awards.

1. In General Assembly and Novice Committees, delegates are expected to wear Western Business Attire while committee is in session. In Crisis and Specialized Committees, delegates are expected to wear Western Business Attire, but may elect to contact the secretariat team for permission if they wish to dress in a way that encapsulates their assignment.
2. Delegates must act in accordance with California State Laws. Possession of substances and weapons of any kind are not permitted.
3. Delegates must abide by conference rules during the duration of the conference. This includes unwritten instruction and guidance provided by conference advisors, staff, and secretariat.
4. Sexual Harassment and Discrimination will not be tolerated. In order to encourage the free and open exchange of ideas, delegates are expected to be mindful of, respect and tolerate personal differences and differences of opinion. In particular, delegates are to refrain from abusive or derogatory language as well as personal attacks on other delegates, advisors, staff, and secretariat members. This includes but is not limited to:
 - a. Slurs based on race, ethnicity, gender, religious affiliation, age, disabilities and sexual orientation.
 - b. Cyberbullying in light of the online format.
5. Delegates are expected to act appropriately in a school setting and any inappropriate use of school facilities will not be tolerated.
6. Delegates are expected to follow any and all technology guidelines provided by the conference regarding the use of the internet, pre written research and speeches, and online resources. The use of text generation tools such as ChatGPT is strictly prohibited throughout the conference.

Conduct Contract

I have read the above Code of Conduct and agree to adhere to these rules in tandem with local laws and school rules. I understand that violation of these rules may result in expulsion from the conference.

Liability Contract

I hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:

On behalf of myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, I hereby waive and release any and all rights and claims for damages I may have against SBMUN VIII as well as any other persons connected with the South Bay Model United Nations and its staff, secretariat, and advisors for any and all injuries which my child may suffer while taking part in SBMUN VIII or as a result thereof.

I am aware that SBMUN VIII staff are not responsible for any loss of personal items, and that while every effort will be made to find them, they are not the staff's responsibility. I acknowledge the urge participants to not bring highly valued items to the event.

I hereby grant and authorize South Bay Model United Nations and those acting with its permission to take photographs and/or take videos of me at SBMUN VIII. This material may be retained and used by South Bay Model United Nations only in electronic and print publicity material, and on the South Bay Model United Nations website. Such information will not identify me by name, unless I have otherwise permitted it.

I understand that I have no ownership interest in the photograph(s) or materials in which I am included and that I will not receive payment of any kind for their use. I release South Bay Model United Nations and its assignees from any claims arising from the use of such photographs in the ways described above.
